

On Heraklitean space-time

Peter Minkowski (Institute for Theoretical Physics, University of Bern)

The problem of quantized metric opposing the notion of classic coordinate transformations shall be addressed. If thus the base space starts out to be one of commuting space-time c-number variables after a field-dependent transformation it mutates to a collection of q-numbers to which the attribute Heraklitean is given in the title.